Capstone Practice Systems and Doug Simpson Announce Affiliation

Expands North American coverage for document assembly and practice systems consulting services

Harvard, MA, February 28, 2007: Capstone Practice Systems announced today that it has affiliated with Doug Simpson of Oakville, ON Canada. The result of the affiliation is that Capstone Practice Systems will increase its presence in the Canadian market, while Doug Simpson will be involved with practice systems development projects for both US and Canadian customers.

Marc Lauritsen, President of Capstone Practice Systems said today: "We are delighted to welcome Doug Simpson into our network of world-class legal practice system developers, and to team with BackDraft Systems. Doug has been a leading figure (and friend) in this field for decades. I look forward to spectacular collaborations within this new framework."

Doug Simpson, who for the past five years served as CEO of GhostFill Technologies Inc., recently formed a legal technology consulting business called BackDraft Systems. Doug Simpson said "I am honored to be affiliated with the leading document assembly and legal practice systems consulting group in the United States and I hope to represent them well in the Canadian market. I am excited about the ever-expanding prospects for automated practice systems and tools."
